CERTIFICATE OF CONFIRMATION

This certificate serves as proof that Pavel Motin, our former employee, was actively involved in the 2020 project focused on optimizing prices for accounting services within the Department of Audit and Consulting for non-resident clients.

During the project, Pavel Motin was responsible for:

- Setting up the business goals of the model through communication with the project chief.
- Developing the approach for processing data.
- Processing internal company data related to the accounting services.
- Developing an econometric model related to the pricing of accounting services.
- Evaluating the statistical significance of the model.
- Presenting the completed model to the project chief.
